

RULES OF CONDUCT

for staff and volunteers of the German Red Cross on mission for

- the INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE RED CROSS (ICRC)
- the INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF RED CROSS AND RED CRES-CENT SOCIETIES (FEDERATION)
  - the GERMAN RED CROSS (GRC)

As staff and representatives of the German Red Cross, we are personally and collectively responsible for upholding and conforming with the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct. All staff and representatives of the GRC shall therefore, at all times and in all circumstances, refrain from acts of misconduct, and respect the Fundamental Principles of the Red Cross Movement and the dignity of those whom the Red Cross aims to assist.

The regulations outlined below apply to all delegates, their dependents accompanying them, local staff, volunteers and consultants deployed within the scope of a relief operation or programme or project of the above-mentioned organization. For convenience, all such persons will be referred to as “field personnel” for the purposes of this document. Field personnel going on mission with the ICRC or the Federation, as the case may be, will be requested to sign a binding Code of Conduct similar to these Rules. All field personnel is expected to behave accordingly, both on duty and in private, and to practise working methods that will build public confidence. Field personnel is expected to be available for action beyond usual working hours, particularly during emergencies. All field personnel must be permanently aware of the fact that any impropriety on their part may have negative consequences for many human beings.

The components of the Red Cross Movement often act in situations of war, internal disorder or other emergencies. Working in such circumstances can expose field personnel to physical danger that should not be underrated. All field personnel must therefore exercise moderation, keep a certain discipline and strictly follow the security rules established by the Red Cross organization in charge of current operation or programme.

Since the Red Cross is a purely humanitarian organisation, its credibility and acceptance among the international community depend essentially on the respect of the Fundamental Principles and the amount of trust which governments will put in these Principles. Red Cross field personnel on mission must therefore at all times and under all circumstances, whether on duty or not, refrain from saying or doing anything that might be perceived to violate the Fundamental Principles, particularly those of Impartiality and Neutrality.

Likewise, family members staying with field personnel in a country of assignment must not contravene the Fundamental Principles, particularly those of Impartiality and Neutrality, whether in word or deed.

The Fundamental Principles of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement

unanimously adopted by the XXth International Red Cross Conference in Vienna, October 1965

Humanity

The International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement, born of a desire to bring assistance without discrimination to the wounded on the battlefield, endeavours, in its international and national capacity, to prevent and alleviate human suffering wherever it may be found. Its purpose is to protect life and health and to ensure respect for the human being. It promotes mutual understanding, friendship, cooperation and lasting peace amongst all peoples.

Impartiality

It makes no discrimination as to nationality, race, religious beliefs, class or political opinions. It endeavours to relieve the suffering of individuals, being guided solely by their needs, and to give priority to the most urgent cases of distress.

Neutrality

In order to enjoy the confidence of all, the Movement may not take sides in hostilities or engage in controversies of a political, racial, religious or ideological nature.

Independence

The Movement is independent. The National Societies, while auxiliaries in the humanitarian services of their governments and subject to the laws of their respective countries, must always maintain their autonomy so that they may be able at all times to act in accordance with the principles of the Movement.

Voluntary service

It is a voluntary relief movement not prompted in any manner by desire for gain.

Unity

There can be only one Red Cross or Red Crescent Society in any one country. It must be open to all. It must carry on its humanitarian work throughout its territory.

Universality

The International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement, in which all societies have equal status and share equal responsibilities and duties in helping each other, is worldwide.

In the event of any violation of these Rules of Conduct, the staff member shall be informed in writing of the allegation(s) made against him/her and shall be given appropriate time to respond to such charges (normally ten (10) working days in the case of misconduct, but an extension of these terms may be agreed if appropriate).
